Article 1

The present Regulations apply to all staff members of the Registry, with the exception of Articles 5, 6, 10 and 11, which do not apply to the Registrar or the Deputy-Registrar.

Article 1bis

1. The Registrar shall ensure that the rights and duties of staff members of the Registry, as set out in these Staff Regulations for the Registry, pursuant to the Statute and Rules of Court, are respected.

2. In exercising his or her authority, the Registrar shall, when the circumstances so require, seek to ensure that all necessary safety and security arrangements are made for staff carrying out the responsibilities entrusted to them.

Article 2

1. In the performance of their duties staff members of the Registry shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any Government or from any other source external to the Court.

2. By accepting appointment, staff members pledge themselves to discharge their functions and regulate their conduct with the interests of the Court only in view, and with loyalty to the aims, purposes and principles of the United Nations, as set forth in its Charter, of which the Statute of the Court forms an integral part.

Article 3

1. Staff members of the Registry shall uphold and respect the principles set out in the Charter, of which the Statute of the Court forms an integral part, including faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women. Consequently, staff members shall exhibit respect for all cultures; they shall not discriminate against any individual or group of individuals or otherwise abuse the power and authority vested in them.

2. Staff members of the Registry shall uphold the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. The concept of integrity includes, but is not limited to, probity, impartiality, fairness, honesty and truthfulness in all matters affecting their work and status.

3. While staff members' personal views and convictions, including their political and religious convictions, remain inviolable, staff members shall ensure that those views and convictions do not adversely affect their official duties or the interests of the Court. They shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner befitting their status as international civil servants and shall not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the proper discharge of their duties with the Court. They shall avoid any action and, in particular, any kind of public pronouncement that may adversely reflect on their status, or on the integrity, independence and impartiality that are required by that status.

Article 4

The privileges and immunities deriving from Article 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations of 13 February 1946, General Assembly resolution 90 (1) of 11 December 1946, and the exchange of letters between the President of the Court and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands of 26 June 1946, are conferred in the interests of the Court and the Organization. These privileges and immunities furnish no excuse to the staff members who enjoy them for non-performance of their private obligations or failure to observe laws and police regulations. In any case where these privileges and immunities arise, the staff member shall immediately report to the Registrar.

Article 5

1. Staff members of the Registry shall be appointed by the Court on proposals submitted by the Registrar.

2. Appointments of staff members in the General Service category shall however be made by the Registrar with the approval of the President, and appointments of short-term staff shall be made by the Registrar.

3. On appointment, staff members shall receive a letter of appointment drawn up in accordance with Annex I hereto. Such letter of appointment shall contain expressly or by reference all the terms and conditions of employment.

Article 6

1. The age limit for Registry staff members appointed on or after 1 January 2014 shall be 65 years³.

2. The Court may, however, on the proposal of the Registrar, decide to retain an official in the service beyond this age limit. For staff members in the General Service category, the decision whether to grant an extension shall be taken by the Registrar, with the approval of the President.

3. Any such extension shall be only for one year at a time.

Article 7

1. The normal hours of work shall be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Monday to Friday, with a luncheon interval of one hour and a half.

2. The Registry shall normally observe public holidays in the Netherlands. One additional day's holiday shall be given on a day selected by the Registrar during the Christmas period.

3. Exceptions to the rules in the foregoing paragraphs may be made by the Registrar as the needs of the service require.

³For Registry staff members recruited before 1 January 1990, the age limit shall be 60 years. For Registry staff members recruited between 1 January 1990 and 31 December 2013, the age limit shall be 62 years.

Article 8

1. Registry staff members in the General Service category shall be entitled to compensation for overtime work done on the instructions of the Registrar outside the normal hours or on other than working days. Such compensation shall take the form of either compensatory leave or a supplementary payment, on the terms stated in Annex V.

2. Staff members other than those in the General Service category may be given compensatory leave if they have worked considerable or frequent overtime periods.

Article 9

1. A Staff Committee elected by the staff (other than short-term staff) shall be established; it shall consist of three staff members, of whom one shall be a staff member in the General Service category, one shall be a staff member in the Professional or Director category, and the third a staff member in any category.

2. The Staff Committee shall be entitled to make proposals to the Registrar, and to be consulted, on general problems of staff welfare, conditions of work and general personnel policies. General administrative instructions on such questions shall, except in cases of urgency, be shown in advance to the Committee for consideration and comment.

3. Individual staff members shall remain entitled to approach the Registrar directly in any matter relating to their own rights and duties, and the Staff Committee shall not intervene in any such matter unless requested to do so by the staff member concerned.

4. The Registrar shall afford facilities for meetings of the staff and of the Staff Committee, and shall allow members of the Staff Committee sufficient time for the performance of their functions, during office hours.

Article 10

1. The Registrar may impose disciplinary measures on any staff member who engages in misconduct. He or she may dismiss a member of the staff for serious misconduct.

2. Serious misconduct includes, but is not limited to: violent behaviour; sexual exploitation or sexual abuse; unauthorized disclosure to the outside world of information covered by the confidentiality of the deliberations of the Court; dishonest behaviour; fraudulent activities, in particular when carried out to the detriment of the Court; misappropriation of funds; gross negligence causing serious injury to the Court or the United Nations.

Article 11

1. There is hereby established a Conciliation Committee, consisting of three staff members of the Registry selected as follows:

- (a) one member designated by the Registrar;
- (b) one member elected by the staff as a whole, by simple majority; and
- (c) a Chair chosen by the above two members or, if there has been a failure of agreement between them, designated by the President of the Court.

2. Each member of the Conciliation Committee selected in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article shall have an alternate chosen in the same manner, who shall sit in the event of it being impossible for the full member to do so for the reasons set forth in paragraph 3 below or for any other compelling reason, such as ill-health.

3. Members of the Conciliation Committee and their alternates may not deal with any case in which they have previously taken part, in whatever capacity, or the decision of which could be of direct concern to them.

4. Members of the Conciliation Committee and their alternates shall be appointed for three years and as soon as practicable after each triennial renewal of the Court⁴. In case of a casual vacancy, a member shall be appointed as soon as practicable for the remainder of his or her predecessor's term; the choice shall be made in the manner prescribed above for the original appointment. A member shall hold office until replaced but, though replaced, shall finish any case with which he or she may have begun to deal before his or her replacement, provided that he or she remains a staff member of the Registry.

5. A staff member of the Registry may lodge a complaint with the Conciliation Committee

- (a) against an administrative decision which constitutes in his or her view a breach of his or her contract or of his or her terms of employment, the words "contract" and "terms of employment" comprising all provisions of the Staff Regulations for the Registry, and of the texts referred to therein, as may have been in force at the time of the alleged non-observance; or
- (b) against any disciplinary actions taken against him or her.

6. The Conciliation Committee shall operate as a neutral instance. It shall hear the staff member and the Registrar without other persons present and endeavour to settle the matter by way of conciliation in accordance with the applicable provisions of Annex VI. The Committee shall present its views in a written report which provides a statement of reasons, fact and law.

7. In the event of a failure to achieve a conciliation, the administrative decision or disciplinary action may be the subject of an Application to the United Nations Appeals Tribunal, in accordance with the Statute of that Tribunal and under the conditions to be determined in an exchange of letters between the President of the Court and the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

8. In the event of difficulty in the application of the present Article and of Annex VI, the Court will decide.

Article 12⁵

1. Subject always to the present Staff Regulations for the Registry, all questions concerning the conditions of employment, rights, duties and obligations of the all staff members of the Registry shall be dealt with

- (a) according to the provisions of the Staff Regulations of the United Nations listed in Annex II, Section A, hereto;

⁴With respect to the initial appointments, the terms of office of Conciliation Committee members were reduced, in such a way as to make it possible to proceed with the ensuing appointments on the occasion of the triennial renewal of the Court which took place in the year 2000.

⁵The Court decided on 24 September 2002 that the text of the United Nations Staff Regulations referred to in paragraph 1 (a) of this Article should be that set out in ST/SGB/2001/8 and that the text of the United Nations Staff Regulations referred to in paragraph 1 (b) of this Article should be that set out in ST/SGB/2002/1 and ST/SGB/2002/3; as to subsequent modifications of those texts, see Article 13 of the present Regulations.

(b) according to the provisions of the Staff Rules of the United Nations listed in Annex II, Section B, hereto;

as interpreted, implemented and applied by the relevant administrative instructions, administrative circulars and information circulars issued by or on behalf of the Secretary-General.

2. Exceptions to the provisions applicable to Registry staff members may be made by the Registrar provided such exception is agreed to by the staff member directly affected and is not prejudicial to the interests of any other staff member or group of staff members.

Article 13

1. Any amendments or other modifications, however effected, of the provisions of the United Nations Staff Regulations and Staff Rules referred to in subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Article 12, paragraph 1, as well as the administrative instructions, administrative circulars and information circulars referred to in that paragraph, shall be promulgated in the Registry by the Registrar as soon as practicable after they come to his or her notice, with an indication of the date from which they take effect. Unless otherwise indicated, where changes affect the financial and other benefits of staff members, they shall be applied for the benefit of Registry staff with effect from the date on which they took effect for Secretariat staff.

2. In exceptional cases, if the Registrar considers that such an amendment or modification should be examined by the Court before taking effect in the Registry, he or she may postpone promulgation of the amendment or modification, and shall in such case report the matter forthwith to the Court.

3. United Nations Staff Rules referred to in subparagraphs (b) and (c) of Article 12, paragraph 1, of the Registry Staff Regulations, and amendments thereto, shall not give rise to acquired rights within the meaning of Article 14 of those Regulations for Registry staff members for so long as they are prevented under Article 12 of the United Nations Staff Regulations from giving rise to acquired rights for United Nations Secretariat staff members.

4. The text of amendments and modifications to which this Article applies shall be communicated to the Court by the Registrar as soon as promulgated.

Article 14

The present Regulations may be supplemented or amended by the Court, without prejudice to the acquired rights of staff members. Modifications made by the Court pursuant to this Article take effect on the date of their adoption by the Court, unless otherwise decided by the Court.

Article 15

Staff members may suggest to the Registrar amendments to the present Regulations.

A

Conditions governing Compensation for Overtime Work

Pursuant to Article 8, paragraph 1, of the Staff Regulations, staff members in the General Service category who are required to work overtime shall be given compensatory time off or additional payment in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Overtime in the Registry means time worked in excess of the scheduled work day or in excess of the scheduled work week or time worked on official holidays.
- (ii) The scheduled work day in the Registry means the duration of the working hours on any day of the scheduled work week less one hour and a half for a meal.
- (iii) The scheduled work week in the Registry consists of the five working days assigned to the staff member during seven consecutive calendar days. It may be modified by the adoption of a shift or rota system, also on the basis of the number of scheduled hours.
- (iv) Compensation shall take the form of an equal amount of compensatory time off for overtime in excess of the scheduled work day up to a total of eight hours of work on the same day. If, upon separation from service, a staff member has accrued compensatory time off, he or she may be paid in lieu thereof a sum of money corresponding to the net base salary for an equivalent number of hours.
- (v) Compensation shall take the form of an additional payment for overtime in excess of a total of eight hours of work or any day of the scheduled work week, or when it takes place on the sixth or seventh day of the scheduled work week, or on an official holiday; however, if the exigencies of the service permit, any overtime may be compensated by time off, if the staff member concerned so requests, and his or her Head of Department agrees.
- (vi) The additional payment referred to in subparagraph (v) above shall be calculated as follows:
 - (a) for overtime worked before 9 p.m., or before 12 noon on the sixth day of the work week (normal overtime), the additional payment shall be made at the rate of one-and-a-half times the aggregate of the staff member's base salary and language or non-resident's allowances, if any;
 - (b) for overtime worked after 9 p.m., after 12 noon on the sixth day of the work week, on the seventh day of the work week or on an official holiday (special overtime), the additional payment shall be made at a rate of twice the aggregate of the staff member's base salary and allowances, as above.
- (vii) Compensation for overtime shall be reckoned to the nearest half-hour; casual overtime of less than one half-hour on any day during the scheduled work week shall be disregarded. A staff member who is required to work on the sixth or seventh day of the week or on an official holiday shall receive no less than four hours of overtime compensation.
- (viii) For the purposes of overtime calculation, authorization absences on an official holiday, and any other leave, shall be deducted from the normal length of the scheduled work week.
- (ix) Week-end premium will be paid to staff for whom the scheduled work week has been modified by the adoption of a shift or roster system, also on the basis of the number of scheduled hours. The rate and the conditions under which this premium will be paid are as follows:

- (a) 50 per cent of the hourly base salary corresponding to the level and step of the staff member concerned;
 - (b) the premium will be payable for any period of duty between 7 a.m. on Saturday and 7 a.m. on Monday;
 - (c) the premium may be paid in addition to night differential, if applicable, but is not payable if the provisions of paragraph (vi) above apply.
- (x) In the interest of the health of the staff and the efficiency of the service, supervisors shall not require a staff-member to work more than 40 hours of overtime during any one month, except where unusual exigencies of the service so require.

B

Rules as to Night Differential

The conditions of the implementation of United Nations Staff Rule 3.12 in its application to the Registry are as follows:

1. If a full-time staff member is required to observe regular working hours any part of which falls between 7.30 p.m. and 8 a.m., he or she shall be entitled in respect of the hours worked between those times to a night differential amounting to:

- (a) 10 per cent of base salary for a staff member in the Professional category or above;
- (b) 25 per cent of base salary for a staff member in the General Service category; provided the staff member has worked not less than four night hours in one calendar week.

2. Payments shall be reckoned to the nearest hour, and work periods of less than one half-hour shall not be taken into consideration.

ANNEX VI

Disciplinary procedure applicable to Registry staff members (Sections 1 to 4) and Proceedings before the Conciliation Committee (Section 5)

1. Misconduct

- (a) Failure by a staff member to comply with his or her obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, including the Statute of the Court, the Rules of Court and the Staff Regulations for the Registry or other relevant administrative issuances, or to observe the standards of conduct expected of an international civil servant may amount to misconduct and may lead to the imposition of disciplinary measures.
- (b) Where the staff member's conduct is determined by the Registrar to constitute misconduct, such staff member may be required to reimburse the Court or the United Nations either partially or in full for any financial loss suffered by the Court or the United Nations as a result of his or her actions, if such actions are determined to be wilful, reckless or grossly negligent.
- (c) The decision to launch an investigation into allegations of misconduct and to impose a disciplinary measure shall be within the discretionary authority of the Registrar.

2. Disciplinary measures

- (a) Disciplinary measures may take one or more of the following forms:
 - (i) written censure;
 - (ii) loss of one or more steps in grade;
 - (iii) deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for salary increment;
 - (iv) suspension without pay for a specified period;
 - (v) fine;
 - (vi) deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for consideration for promotion;
 - (vii) demotion with deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for consideration for promotion;
 - (viii) separation from service, with notice or compensation in lieu of notice, and with or without termination indemnity pursuant to paragraph (c) of Annex III to the United Nations Staff Regulations;
 - (ix) dismissal.
- (b) Measures other than those listed under Section 2 (a) above shall not be considered to be disciplinary measures within the meaning of the present rule. They include, but are not limited to, the following measures:
 - (i) written or oral reprimand;
 - (ii) recovery of monies owed to the Court;

- (iii) administrative leave with or without pay pursuant to Section 4 below.

3. Due process in the disciplinary process

- (a) The Registrar may initiate the disciplinary process where the findings of an investigation indicate that misconduct may have occurred. In such cases, no disciplinary measure or non-disciplinary measure may be imposed on a staff member following the completion of an investigation unless he or she has been notified, in writing, of the charges against him or her, and has been given the opportunity to respond to those charges.
- (b) Any disciplinary measure imposed on a staff member shall be proportionate to the nature and gravity of his or her misconduct.

4. Administrative leave pending investigation and the disciplinary process

- (a) A staff member may be placed on administrative leave, subject to conditions specified by the Registrar, at any time pending an investigation concerning allegations of misconduct.
- (b) A staff member placed on administrative leave pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall be given a written statement of the reason(s) for such leave and its probable duration, which, so far as practicable, should not exceed three months.
- (c) Administrative leave shall be with full pay unless, in exceptional circumstances, the Registrar decides that administrative leave without pay is warranted.
- (d) Placement on administrative leave shall be without prejudice to the rights of the staff member and shall not constitute a disciplinary measure. If administrative leave is without pay and either the allegations of misconduct are subsequently not sustained or it is subsequently found that the conduct at issue does not warrant dismissal, any pay withheld shall be restored without delay.

5. Proceedings before the Conciliation Committee

1. A staff member of the Registry who wishes to lodge a complaint under Article 11, paragraph 5, of the Staff Regulations for the Registry shall first address a letter to the Registrar requesting a review of the administrative decision or disciplinary action complained of. The letter must be sent within 30 days of the date on which the staff member received notification or became aware of the decision or action.

2. (a) The staff member may proceed with his or her complaint if the Registrar, by his or her reply, rejects in whole or in part his or her request, or if no reply is received by him or her within 30 days of the date on which his or her letter was addressed to the Registrar.
- (b) The complaint shall be in writing and shall be lodged by the staff member with the Conciliation Committee within 30 days of receipt of the Registrar's reply, or, if there is no reply within 30 days of the date on which the staff member's letter was sent to him or her, within the next 30 days.

3. In the case of disciplinary action, the staff member may, if he or she so wishes, instead of following the procedure provided for in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, lodge his or her complaint directly with the Conciliation Committee within 30 days of the date on which he or she was informed of the action complained of.

4. When lodging his or her complaint the staff member shall send a copy to the Registrar. Within 30 days of receiving the copy, the Registrar shall send his or her answer in writing to the Conciliation Committee and, at the same time, a copy to the staff member. The Chair of the Committee shall ensure that those copies have in fact been received by the addressees.

5. As soon as practicable after receiving the Registrar's answer, the Conciliation Committee shall endeavour to conciliate between the parties and shall hear them for that purpose. In the event of a successful conciliation, it shall record the agreement of the parties in a Minute. In the event of failure, it shall draw up a report summarizing the procedure followed, the arguments of the parties and the recommendations made by the Committee during the proceedings, and containing a statement of the relevant facts and law. That report shall be transmitted to the Registrar and to the staff member. By virtue of Article 11, paragraph 7, of the Staff Regulations for the Registry, and within the time-limit indicated by the exchange of letters for which provision is made in that paragraph, the staff member shall be entitled to submit an Application to the United Nations Appeals Tribunal.

The amount of the grant per scholastic year for each child shall be 75 per cent of the admissible educational expenses actually incurred, subject to a maximum grant as approved by the General Assembly. - (d) The Secretary-General shall also establish terms and conditions under which an education grant shall be available to a staff member whose child is unable, by reason of physical or mental disability, to attend a normal educational institution and therefore requires special teaching or training to prepare him or her for full integration into society or, while attending a normal educational institution, requires special teaching or training to assist him or her in overcoming the disability. The amount of this grant per year for each disabled child shall be equal to 100 per cent of the education expenses actually incurred, up to a maximum amount approved by the General Assembly;

- (c) In the case of a person who is not employed by the United Nations for the whole of a calendar year or in cases where there is a change in the annual rate of payments made to a staff member, the rate of assessment shall be governed by the annual rate of each such payment made to him or her;
- (d) The assessment computed under the foregoing provisions of the present regulation shall be collected by the United Nations by withholding it from payments. No part of the assessment so collected shall be refunded because of cessation of employment during the calendar year;

 - (i) The amount of such refund shall in no case exceed the amount of his or her income taxes paid and payable in respect of his or her United Nations income. The amount of such refund shall not include tax credits applied to income taxes paid and payable in respect of his or her United Nations income;
 - (ii) If the amount of such income taxes exceeds the amount of staff assessment, the Secretary-General may also pay to the staff member the amount of such excess;
 - (iii) Payments made in accordance with the provisions of the present regulation shall be charged to the Tax Equalization Fund;

- (iv) A payment under the conditions prescribed in the three preceding subparagraphs is authorized in respect of dependency benefits and post adjustments, which are not subject to staff assessment but may be subject to national income taxation.

- (c) With a view to avoiding duplication of benefits and in order to achieve equality between staff members who receive dependency benefits under applicable laws in the form of governmental grants and staff members who do not receive such dependency benefits, the Secretary-General shall prescribe conditions under which the dependency allowance for a child specified in subparagraph (a) (i) above shall be payable only to the extent that the dependency benefits enjoyed by the staff member or his or her spouse under applicable laws amount to less than such a dependency allowance;
- (d) Staff members whose salary rates are set by the Secretary-General under paragraph 5 or paragraph 6 of annex I to the present Regulations shall be entitled to receive dependency allowances at rates and under conditions determined by the Secretary-General, due regard being given to the circumstances in the locality in which the office is located;

This consideration shall also apply, on a reciprocal basis, to the specialized agencies brought into relationship with the United Nations. The Secretary-General may limit eligibility to apply for vacant posts to be filled by staff members appointed for one year or longer under the 100 series of the Staff Rules to internal candidates, as defined by the Secretary-General. If so, other candidates shall be allowed to apply, under conditions to be defined by the Secretary-General, when no internal candidate meets the requirements of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter as well as the requirements of the post³⁶.

 - (iii) If the staff member is, for reasons of health, incapacitated for further service;
 - (iv) If the conduct of the staff member indicates that the staff member does not meet the highest standards of integrity required by Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter;

 - (vi) In the interest of the good administration of the Organization and in accordance with the standards of the Charter, provided that the action is not contested by the staff member concerned;
- (b) In addition, in the case of a staff member holding a continuing appointment, the Secretary-General may terminate the appointment without the consent of the staff member if, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, such action would be in the interest of the good administration of the Organization, to be interpreted principally as a change or termination of a mandate, and in accordance with the standards of the Charter;

 - (ii) Leave may be taken only when authorized. If a staff member is absent from work without authorization, payment of salary and allowances shall cease for the period of unauthorized absence. However, if, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, the absence was caused by reasons beyond the staff member's control and the staff member has accrued annual leave, the absence will be charged to that leave;
 - (iii) All arrangements as to leave shall be subject to the exigencies of service, which may require that leave be taken by a staff member during a period designated by the Secretary-General. The personal circumstances and preferences of the individual staff member shall, as far as possible, be considered.
- (f) A staff member may, in exceptional circumstances, be granted advance annual leave up to a maximum of ten working days, provided that his or her service is expected to continue for a period beyond that necessary to accrue the leave so advanced.

Rule 5.2

- (a) Internationally recruited staff members, as defined under staff rule 4.5 (a) and not excluded from home leave under staff rule 4.5 (b), who are residing and serving outside their home country and who are otherwise eligible shall be entitled once in every twenty-four months of qualifying service to visit their home country at United Nations expense for the purpose of spending in that country a reasonable period of annual leave. Leave taken for this purpose and under the terms and conditions set forth in this rule shall hereinafter be referred to as home leave.

⁴⁸Staff Rules 5.1 to 5.3 and 7.1 to 7.19 inclusive concern the Registrar only if necessary to supplement the régime applicable to him or her by virtue of Article 32, paragraph 7, of the Statute of the Court.

- (b) A staff member shall be eligible for home leave provided that the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (i) While performing his or her official duties:
 - a. The staff member continues to reside in a country other than that of which he or she is a national; or
 - b. In the case of a staff member who is a native of a non-metropolitan territory of the country of the duty station and who maintained his or her normal residence in such non-metropolitan territory prior to appointment, he or she continues to reside, while performing his or her official duties, outside such territory;
 - (ii) The staff member's service is expected by the Secretary-General to continue:
 - a. At least six months beyond the date of his or her return from any proposed home leave; and
 - b. In the case of the first home leave, at least six months beyond the date on which the staff member will have completed twenty-four months of qualifying service;
 - (iii) In the case of home leave following the return from a family visit travel under staff rule 7.1 (a) (vii), normally not less than nine months of continuous service have elapsed since the return from the family visit travel.
- (c) Staff members whose eligibility under paragraph (b) above is established at the time of their appointment shall begin to accrue service credit towards home leave from that date. Staff members who become eligible for home leave subsequent to appointment shall begin to accrue such service credits from the effective date of their becoming eligible.
- (d) The country of home leave shall be the country of the staff member's recognized nationality, subject to the following terms, conditions and exceptions:
- (i) The place of home leave of the staff member within his or her home country shall be, for purposes of travel and transportation entitlements, the place with which the staff member had the closest residential ties during the period of his or her most recent residence in the home country. In exceptional circumstances, a change in the place in the country of home leave may be authorized, under conditions established by the Secretary-General;
 - (ii) A staff member who has served with another public international organization immediately preceding his or her appointment shall have the place of home leave determined as though his or her entire previous service with the other international organization had been with the United Nations;
 - (iii) The Secretary-General may authorize:
 - a. A country other than the country of nationality as the home country, for the purposes of this rule, in exceptional and compelling circumstances. A staff member requesting such authorization will be required to satisfy the Secretary-General that the staff member maintained normal residence in such other country for a prolonged period preceding his or her appointment, that the staff member continues to have close family and personal ties in that country and that the staff member's taking home leave there would not be inconsistent with the purposes and intent of staff regulation 5.3;

- b.* Home leave travel to a country other than the home country, subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General. In such a case, the travel expenses borne by the United Nations shall not exceed the cost of travel to the home country.
- (e)* (i) A staff member's home leave shall fall due upon completion of 24 months of qualifying service;
- (ii) After falling due, home leave may be taken within 12 months, subject to the exigencies of service.
- (f)* A staff member may be granted advance home leave, provided that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service have been completed or that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service have elapsed since the date of return from his or her last home leave. The granting of advance home leave shall not advance the eligibility for, or the due date of, the next home leave. The granting of advance home leave shall be subject to the conditions for the entitlement being subsequently met. If these conditions are not met, the staff member will be required to reimburse the costs paid by the Organization for the advance travel.
- (g)* If a staff member delays taking his or her home leave beyond the 12-month period after which it falls due, such delayed leave may be taken without altering the time of his or her next and succeeding home leave entitlements, provided that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service elapse between the date of the staff member's return from the delayed home leave and the date of his or her next home leave departure.
- (h)* A staff member may be required to take his or her home leave in conjunction with travel on official business or change of official duty station, due regard being paid to the interests of the staff member and his or her family.
- (i)* Subject to the conditions specified in chapter VII of the present Rules, a staff member shall be entitled to claim, in respect of authorized travel on home leave, expenses for himself or herself and eligible family members for the outward and return journeys between the official duty station and the place of home leave. A staff member may also claim travel time in respect of authorized travel on home leave.
- (j)* If both spouses are staff members who are eligible for home leave, and taking into account staff rule 4.7 (d), each staff member shall have the choice either of exercising his or her own home leave entitlement or of accompanying the spouse. A staff member who chooses to accompany his or her spouse shall be granted travel time appropriate to the travel involved. Dependent children whose parents are staff members, each of whom is entitled to home leave, may accompany either parent. The frequency of travel shall not exceed the established periodicity of the home leave both with regard to staff members and to their dependent children, if any.
- (k)* A staff member travelling on home leave shall be required to spend no less than seven calendar days, exclusive of travel time, in his or her home country. The Secretary-General may request a staff member, on his or her return from home leave, to furnish satisfactory evidence that this requirement has been fully met.
- (l)* Under terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General, eligible staff members serving at designated duty stations having very difficult conditions of life and work shall be granted home leave once in every twelve months. Staff members shall be eligible for home leave provided that the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (i) The staff member's service is expected by the Secretary-General to continue:

- a.* At least three months beyond the date of his or her return from any proposed home leave; and
 - b.* In the case of the first home leave, at least three months beyond the date on which the staff member will have completed twelve months of qualifying service;
- (ii) In the case of home leave following the staff member's return from family visit travel under staff rule 7.1 (a) (vii), normally a period of not less than three months of continuous service has elapsed since the staff member's return from family visit travel.

Rule 5.3

Special leave

- (a) (i) Special leave may be granted at the request of a staff member holding a fixed-term or continuing appointment for advanced study or research in the interest of the United Nations, in cases of extended illness, for childcare or for other important reasons for such period of time as the Secretary-General may prescribe;
- (ii) Special leave is normally without pay. In exceptional circumstances, special leave with full or partial pay may be granted;
- (iii) Subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General, family leave may be granted as follows:
 - a.* As special leave with full pay in the case of adoption of a child;
 - b.* As special leave without pay for a period of up to two years for a staff member who is the mother or father of a newly born or adopted child, with a possibility of extension for up to an additional two years in exceptional circumstances. The right of a staff member to be reabsorbed after the end of such special leave without pay shall be fully protected;
 - c.* As special leave without pay for a reasonable period, including necessary travel time, upon the death of a member of the immediate family of the staff member or in case of serious family emergency;
- (b) Special leave shall not be authorized for governmental service in a political office, in a diplomatic or other representational post or for the purpose of performing any functions that are incompatible with the staff member's continued status as an international civil servant. In exceptional circumstances, special leave without pay may be granted to a staff member who is requested by his or her Government to render temporary services involving functions of a technical nature.
- (c) Subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General, a staff member who has successfully completed the competitive examination and completed one year of service under a fixed-term appointment or who holds a continuing appointment and who is called upon to serve in the armed forces of the State of which the staff member is a national, whether for training or active duty, may be granted special leave without pay for the duration of such military service, in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in appendix C to the present Rules.
- (d) The Secretary-General may authorize special leave without pay for pension purposes to protect the pension benefits of staff who are within two years of achieving age 55 years and 25 years of contributory service, or who are over that age and within two years of 25 years of contributory service.

- (e) Staff members holding a temporary appointment may exceptionally be granted special leave, with full or partial pay or without pay, for compelling reasons for such period as the Secretary-General deems appropriate.
- (f) In exceptional cases, the Secretary-General may, at his or her initiative, place a staff member on special leave with full or partial pay or without pay if he or she considers such leave to be in the interest of the Organization.
- (g) Continuity of service shall not be considered broken by periods of special leave with or without pay. However, staff members shall not accrue service credits towards sick, annual and home leave, salary increment, seniority, termination indemnity and repatriation grant during periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay exceeding one month. Periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay exceeding one month shall not be counted towards accrued years of service for eligibility requirements for a continuing appointment.

- (k) The medical board shall be composed of:
 - (i) A medical practitioner selected by the staff member;

- (d) In addition, in the case of a staff member holding a continuing appointment, the Secretary-General may terminate the appointment without the consent of the staff member if, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, such action would be in the interest of the good administration of the Organization, to be interpreted principally as a change or termination of a mandate, and in accordance with the standards of the Charter.

However, service credits shall not accrue during periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay of one full month or more.

- (e) The Organization will, on the written request of the staff member prior to being placed on special leave pursuant to the preceding paragraph, pay the pension contribution of the Organization and/or the staff member during the period of special leave. - (ii) For staff in the Field Service category, on the basis of the staff member's net base salary plus post adjustment;

Rule 9.10

Restitution of advance annual and sick leave

Upon separation, a staff member who has taken advance annual or sick leave beyond that which he or she has subsequently accrued shall make restitution for such advance leave by means of a cash refund or an offset against moneys due to the staff member from the United Nations, equivalent to the remuneration received, including allowances and other payments, in respect of the advance leave period. The Secretary-General may waive this requirement if in the opinion of the Secretary-General there are exceptional or compelling reasons for so doing.

Rule 9.11

Last day for pay purposes

- (a) When a staff member is separated from service, the date on which entitlement to salary, allowances and benefits shall cease shall be determined according to the following provisions:

A staff member will be expected to perform his or her duties during the period of notice of resignation, except when the resignation takes effect upon the completion of maternity or paternity leave or following sick or special leave. Annual leave will be granted during the period of notice only for brief periods;
 - (ii) In the case of abandonment of post, the date shall be the date of the decision by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management to terminate the appointment or the expiry date specified in the letter of appointment, whichever is earlier;
 - (iii) In the case of expiration of a temporary or fixed-term appointment, the date shall be the date specified in the letter of appointment;
 - (iv) In the case of retirement, the date shall be the date approved by the Secretary-General for retirement;

- (v) In the case of termination, the date shall be the date provided in the notice of termination;
- (vi) In the case of dismissal, the date shall be the date on which the staff member is notified in writing of the decision to dismiss him or her;
- (vii) In the case of death, the date on which entitlement to salary, allowances and benefits shall cease shall be the date of death, unless there is a surviving spouse or dependent child. In that event, the date shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

Completed years of service in the Secretariat (as defined in rule 9.8)	Months of salary
3 or less	3
9 or more	9

The months of salary referenced above may be made in a lump sum as soon as the pay accounts and related matters can be closed. Such payment shall be made only to the surviving spouse and dependent children. For staff in the Professional and higher categories, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of the staff member's gross salary less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i). For staff in the Field Service category, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of the staff member's gross salary less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i), plus language allowance, if any. All other entitlements and accrual of benefits shall cease as at the date of death, except as provided by staff rule 3.9 (f) for payment of education grant when the staff member dies while in service after the beginning of a school year.

- (b) When an internationally recruited staff member has an entitlement to return travel under staff rule 7.1 (a) (iv), this shall not affect the determination of the last day for pay purposes in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) above. In the case of resignation, expiration of temporary or fixed-term appointment, termination or retirement, the staff member shall be paid, on separation, an additional amount for days of authorized travel estimated on the basis of uninterrupted travel by an approved route, mode and standard of travel from the duty station to the place of entitlement to return travel. Such amount shall be calculated as is done for the commutation of accrued annual leave under staff rule 9.9 above.

Rule 9.12

Any staff member who so requests shall, on leaving the service of the United Nations, be given a statement relating to the nature of his or her duties and the length of service. - (b) Any requests to Governments which have not acceded to the Convention to defer or exempt staff members from military service by reason of their employment with the United Nations shall be made by the Secretary-General and not by the staff member concerned.
- (c) Staff members who have successfully passed a competitive examination and have completed one year of satisfactory service under a fixed-term appointment or who have a continuing appointment may, if called by a Member Government for military service, whether for training or active duty, be placed on special leave without pay for the duration of their required military service. Other staff members, if called for military service, shall be separated from the Secretariat according to the terms of their appointments.
- (d) A staff member called for military service who is placed on special leave without pay shall have the terms of appointment maintained as they were on the last day of service before the staff member went on leave without pay.
