STAFF REGULATIONS FOR THE REGISTRY OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE<sup>2</sup>
APPROVED BY THE COURT ON 7 MARCH 1979 AND AMENDED BY THE COURT ON 19 NOVEMBER
1987, 11 JULY 1996, 16 APRIL 1997, 5 DECEMBER 2000, 24 SEPTEMBER 2002, 19 MAY 2006,
4 JUNE 2009, 20 MARCH 2012, 13 JULY 2015, 19 MAY 2017, 18 OCTOBER 2017,
8 DECEMBER 2017, 16 MAY 2018 AND 17 JULY 2018

Article 1

The present Regulations apply to all staff members of the Registry, with the exception of Articles 5, 6, 10 and 11, which do not apply to the Registrar or the Deputy-Registrar.

Article 1bis

1. The Registrar shall ensure that the rights and duties of staff members of the Registry, as set out in these Staff Regulations for the Registry, pursuant to the Statute and Rules of Court, are respected.

2. In exercising his or her authority, the Registrar shall, when the circumstances so require, seek to ensure that all necessary safety and security arrangements are made for staff carrying out the responsibilities entrusted to them.

Article 2

1. In the performance of their duties staff members of the Registry shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any Government or from any other source external to the Court.

2. By accepting appointment, staff members pledge themselves to discharge their functions and regulate their conduct with the interests of the Court only in view, and with loyalty to the aims, purposes and principles of the United Nations, as set forth in its Charter, of which the Statute of the Court forms an integral part.

Article 3

1. Staff members of the Registry shall uphold and respect the principles set out in the Charter, of which the Statute of the Court forms an integral part, including faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women. Consequently, staff members shall exhibit respect for all cultures; they shall not discriminate against any individual or group of individuals or otherwise abuse the power and authority vested in them.

2. Staff members of the Registry shall uphold the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. The concept of integrity includes, but is not limited to, probity, impartiality, fairness, honesty and truthfulness in all matters affecting their work and status.

3. While staff members' personal views and convictions, including their political and religious convictions, remain inviolable, staff members shall ensure that those views and convictions do not adversely affect their official duties or the interests of the Court. They shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner befitting their status as international civil servants and shall not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the proper discharge of their duties with the Court. They shall avoid any action and, in particular, any kind of public pronouncement that may adversely reflect on their status, or on the integrity, independence and impartiality that are required by that status.

<sup>2</sup> Article 21, paragraph 2, of the Statute and Article 28, paragraph 4, of the Rules of Court.

Article 4

The privileges and immunities deriving from Article 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations of 13 February 1946, General Assembly resolution 90 (1) of 11 December 1946, and the exchange of letters between the President of the Court and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands of 26 June 1946, are conferred in the interests of the Court and the Organization. These privileges and immunities furnish no excuse to the staff members who enjoy them for non-performance of their private obligations or failure to observe laws and police regulations. In any case where these privileges and immunities arise, the staff member shall immediately report to the Registrar.

Article 5

1. Staff members of the Registry shall be appointed by the Court on proposals submitted by the Registrar.

2. Appointments of staff members in the General Service category shall however be made by the Registrar with the approval of the President, and appointments of short-term staff shall be made by the Registrar.

3. On appointment, staff members shall receive a letter of appointment drawn up in accordance with Annex I hereto. Such letter of appointment shall contain expressly or by reference all the terms and conditions of employment.

Article 6

1. The age limit for Registry staff members shall be 65 years<sup>3</sup>, taking into account the acquired rights of staff appointed before 1 January 2014<sup>4</sup>.

2. Staff members who wish to exercise their acquired right as described in paragraph 1 of this Article and separate from service at their normal age of retirement or any time thereafter before the age of 65 shall give written notice of three months if holding a continuing appointment, or 30 calendar days if holding a fixed-term appointment. The Registrar may, however, accept shorter notice.

<sup>3</sup> Registry staff members currently eligible to retire at 60 or 62 years will have the choice either to retire at that age or at any time thereafter before the age of 65, or to remain in service until they reach 65 years.

<sup>4</sup> The reference to acquired rights means that, following the entry into force of the change to Article 6 of the Staff Regulations for the Registry, staff members currently eligible to retire at 60 or 62 years will retain that right with full retirement benefits; this change to Article 6 does not affect the retirement benefits to which Registry staff members are entitled by virtue of their participation in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, in accordance with the rules and regulations of that Fund.

3. If the interest of the Court so warrants, the Court may, however, on the proposal of the Registrar, decide to retain an official in the service beyond the age of 65. For staff members in the General Service category, the decision whether to grant an extension shall be taken by the Registrar, with the approval of the President.

4. Any such extension shall be only for one year at a time.

Article 7

1. The normal hours of work shall be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Monday to Friday, with a luncheon interval of one hour and a half.

2. The Registry shall normally observe public holidays in the Netherlands. One additional day's holiday shall be given on a day selected by the Registrar during the Christmas period.

3. Exceptions to the rules in the foregoing paragraphs may be made by the Registrar as the needs of the service require.

Article 8

1. Registry staff members in the General Service category shall be entitled to compensation for overtime work done on the instructions of the Registrar outside the normal hours or on other than working days. Such compensation shall take the form of either compensatory leave or a supplementary payment, on the terms stated in Annex V.

2. Staff members other than those in the General Service category may be given compensatory leave if they have worked considerable or frequent overtime periods.

Article 9

1. The Registrar shall establish and maintain continuous contact and communication with the staff in order to ensure the effective participation of the staff in identifying, examining and resolving issues relating to staff welfare, including conditions of work, general conditions of life and other human resources policies.

2. A Staff Committee (consisting of not more than seven members adequately representing both general service and professional staff, and elected by the staff other than short-term staff) shall be established. It shall be entitled to effective participation in identifying, examining and resolving issues relating to matters referred to in paragraph 1 above, and shall be entitled to make proposals to the Registrar on behalf of the staff.

3. General office circulars and other administrative issuances to be promulgated by the Registrar on questions within the scope of paragraph 1 above, as well as office circulars adapting, interpreting or disregarding any of the Secretary-General's bulletins and the administrative instructions and information circulars issued on his or her behalf, referred to in paragraph 1 (c) of Article 12, shall be transmitted, unless emergency situations make it impracticable, to the Staff Committee for consideration and comment before a final decision has been taken on their promulgation.

4. Individual staff members shall remain entitled to approach the Registrar directly in any matter relating to their own rights and duties, and the Staff Committee shall not intervene in any such matter unless requested to do so by the staff member concerned.

5. Staff representatives must be protected against discriminatory or prejudicial treatment based on their status or activities as staff representatives, both during their term of office and after it has ended. The Registry should avoid unwarranted interference in the work of the Staff Committee.

6. The Registrar shall afford facilities for meetings of the staff and of the Staff Committee, and shall allow members of the Staff Committee sufficient time for the performance of their functions, during office hours. The Staff Committee shall be afforded an office and such additional resources as may be required to enable it to carry out its functions promptly and efficiently, while not impairing the efficient operation of the Registry. The Registrar will issue an office circular outlining the facilities and resources to which the Staff Committee is entitled.

Article 10

1. The Registrar may impose disciplinary measures on any staff member who engages in misconduct. He or she may dismiss a member of the staff for serious misconduct.

2. Serious misconduct includes, but is not limited to: violent behaviour; sexual exploitation or sexual abuse; unauthorized disclosure to the outside world of information covered by the confidentiality of the deliberations of the Court; dishonest behaviour; fraudulent activities, in particular when carried out to the detriment of the Court; misappropriation of funds; gross negligence causing serious injury to the Court or the United Nations.

Article 10bis

Staff members of the Registry shall have full access to the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services, according to the rules applicable to it.

Article 11

1. A staff member of the Registry, former staff member, person making claims in the name of an incapacitated staff member or successor in interest to the rights of a deceased staff member (hereinafter the “applicant”) may file an application with the United Nations Dispute Tribunal, in accordance with the Statute of that Tribunal and subject to the conditions to be determined in an exchange of letters between the President of the Court and the Secretary-General of the United Nations:

(a) against an administrative decision which constitutes in his or her view a breach of his or her contract or of his or her terms of employment, the words “contract” and “terms of employment” comprising all provisions of the Staff Regulations for the Registry, and of the texts referred to therein, as may have been in force at the time of the alleged non-observance, including Secretary-General’s bulletins and the administrative instructions and information circulars issued on his or her behalf which have been made applicable to the Registry in accordance with Articles 12 and 13 below; or

(b) against any disciplinary actions taken against him or her.

2. The applicant shall first address a letter to the Registrar requesting a review of the administrative decision or disciplinary action complained of. The letter must be sent within 60 days of the date on which the applicant received notification or became aware of the decision or action.

3. The Registrar will immediately transmit the applicant's request to an independent body established to conduct management evaluation, which will evaluate the contested administrative decision and provide a recommendation to the Registrar within 30 calendar days. The Registrar's response, reflecting the outcome of the management evaluation shall be communicated in writing to the staff member not later than 60 calendar days from the filing of the request by the concerned staff member. The deadline may be extended by the Registrar pending efforts for informal resolution by the Office of the Ombudsman, under conditions specified by the Registrar.

4. Following the management evaluation of the contested administrative decision, an application to the United Nations Dispute Tribunal may be filed, in accordance with Article 8.1 (d) (i) of the Statute of the Tribunal, within 90 calendar days of the applicant's receipt of the response by the administration to his or her request for review or, if no response was received by the administration, within 90 calendar days of the expiry of the response period for the management evaluation.

5. In the case of disciplinary action, the applicant may, if he or she so wishes, instead of following the procedure provided for in paragraph 2 above, file his or her application directly with the United Nations Dispute Tribunal within 90 days of the date on which he or she was informed of the action complained of, in conformity with Article 8.1 (d) (ii) of the Statute of the Dispute Tribunal.

6. The judgments and orders of the Dispute Tribunal are subject to appeal in accordance with the statute of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal.

Article 11bis

Staff members of the Registry shall have full access to the United Nations Office of Staff Legal Assistance, according to the rules applicable to it, or they may, if they so choose, retain an independent lawyer.

Article 12<sup>5</sup>

1. Subject always to the present Staff Regulations for the Registry, all questions concerning the conditions of employment, rights, duties and obligations of the staff members of the Registry shall be dealt with according to:

- (a) the provisions of the Staff Regulations of the United Nations listed in Annex II, Section A, hereto;

The Secretary-General's bulletins, administrative instructions and information circulars referred to in paragraph 1 (c) of this Article shall be those published and in force at the Secretariat on 8 December 2017, subject to footnote 2 below.

As to subsequent modifications of those texts, see Article 13 of the present Regulations.

(c) office circulars issued by the Registrar, as well as Secretary-General's bulletins and administrative instructions and information circulars issued on his or her behalf whereby the provisions referred to in paragraphs 1 (a) and (b) of this Article are interpreted, implemented and applied, subject to Article 12, paragraph 2, below.

2. The Registrar may, if necessary, issue an office circular adapting, interpreting or disregarding any of the Secretary-General's bulletins and the administrative instructions and information circulars issued on his or her behalf, referred to in paragraph 1 (c) of this Article, providing the reasons why this is necessary taking into account the specific administrative needs of the Registry. If such an office circular has not been issued within six months of the date of publication at the Secretariat of the Secretary-General's bulletin, administrative instruction or information circular in question, the latter will apply directly to the Registry<sup>6</sup>.

3. Exceptions to the provisions applicable to Registry staff members may be made by the Registrar provided such exception is agreed to by the staff member directly affected and is not prejudicial to the interests of any other staff member or group of staff members.

Article 13

1. Any amendment or other modifications, however effected, of the provisions of the United Nations Staff Regulations and Rules referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of Article 12, paragraph 1, as well as of the Secretary-General's bulletins, administrative instructions and information circulars referred to in subparagraph (c), shall be promulgated in the Registry by office circular of the Registrar within six months of their issuance at the Secretariat, and will come into force on the date of that office circular. If the Registrar decides against such promulgation, he or she shall so inform Registry staff members of that decision and the reasons for the decision within the same time-limit. If such an office circular has not been issued within six months of the date of the amendment or modification in question, the latter will apply directly to the Registry.

2. If the Registrar considers that such an amendment or modification should be examined by the Court before taking effect in the Registry, the Registrar shall make a recommendation to this effect to the Court as soon as practicable within the six month time-limit mentioned in paragraph 1 above. If no decision is taken by the Court within nine months of the Registrar's recommendation, the amendment or modification will apply directly to the Registry.

3. The text of amendments and modifications to which this Article applies shall be communicated to the Court by the Registrar as soon as promulgated.

Article 14

The present Regulations may be supplemented or amended by the Court, without prejudice to the acquired rights of staff members. Modifications made by the Court pursuant to this Article take effect on the date of their adoption by the Court, unless otherwise decided by the Court.

<sup>6</sup> Exceptionally, the Registrar shall have twelve months from the date of adoption of the present amendments to issue any office circulars concerning Secretary-General's bulletins, administrative instructions and information circulars, referred to in paragraph 1 (c) of this Article, published and in force at the Secretariat on that date.

Article 15

Staff members may suggest to the Registrar amendments to the present Regulations.

Conditions governing Compensation for Overtime Work

Pursuant to Article 8, paragraph 1, of the Staff Regulations, staff members in the General Service category who are required to work overtime shall be given compensatory time off or additional payment in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Overtime in the Registry means time worked in excess of the scheduled work day or in excess of the scheduled work week or time worked on official holidays.
- (ii) The scheduled work day in the Registry means the duration of the working hours on any day of the scheduled work week less one hour and a half for a meal.
- (iii) The scheduled work week in the Registry consists of the five working days assigned to the staff member during seven consecutive calendar days. It may be modified by the adoption of a shift or rota system, also on the basis of the number of scheduled hours.
- (iv) Compensation shall take the form of an equal amount of compensatory time off for overtime in excess of the scheduled work day up to a total of eight hours of work on the same day. If, upon separation from service, a staff member has accrued compensatory time off, he or she may be paid in lieu thereof a sum of money corresponding to the net base salary for an equivalent number of hours.
- (v) Compensation shall take the form of an additional payment for overtime in excess of a total of eight hours of work or any day of the scheduled work week, or when it takes place on the sixth or seventh day of the scheduled work week, or on an official holiday; however, if the exigencies of the service permit, any overtime may be compensated by time off, if the staff member concerned so requests, and his or her Head of Department agrees.
- (vi) The additional payment referred to in subparagraph (v) above shall be calculated as follows:
  - (a) for overtime worked before 9 p.m., or before 12 noon on the sixth day of the work week (normal overtime), the additional payment shall be made at the rate of one-and-a-half times the aggregate of the staff member's base salary and language or non-resident's allowances, if any;
  - (b) for overtime worked after 9 p.m., after 12 noon on the sixth day of the work week, on the seventh day of the work week or on an official holiday (special overtime), the additional payment shall be made at a rate of twice the aggregate of the staff member's base salary and allowances, as above.
- (vii) Compensation for overtime shall be reckoned to the nearest half-hour; casual overtime of less than one half-hour on any day during the scheduled work week shall be disregarded. A staff member who is required to work on the sixth or seventh day of the week or on an official holiday shall receive no less than four hours of overtime compensation.
- (viii) For the purposes of overtime calculation, authorization absences on an official holiday, and any other leave, shall be deducted from the normal length of the scheduled work week.
- (ix) Weekend premium will be paid to staff for whom the scheduled work week has been modified by the adoption of a shift or roster system, also on the basis of the number of scheduled hours. The rate and the conditions under which this premium will be paid are as follows:

- (a) 50 per cent of the hourly base salary corresponding to the level and step of the staff member concerned;
  - (b) the premium will be payable for any period of duty between 7 a.m. on Saturday and 7 a.m. on Monday;
  - (c) the premium may be paid in addition to night differential, if applicable, but is not payable if the provisions of paragraph (vi) above apply.
- (x) In the interest of the health of the staff and the efficiency of the service, supervisors shall not require a staff-member to work more than 40 hours of overtime during any one month, except where unusual exigencies of the service so require.

ANNEX VI

Part 1

Disciplinary procedure applicable to Registry staff members

1. Misconduct

- (a) Failure by a staff member to comply with his or her obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, including the Statute of the Court, the Rules of Court, the Staff Regulations for the Registry, the Instructions for the Registry or other relevant administrative issuances, or to observe the standards of conduct expected of an international civil servant may amount to misconduct and may lead to the imposition of disciplinary measures.
- (b) Where the staff member's conduct is determined by the Registrar to constitute misconduct, such staff member may be required to reimburse the Court or the United Nations either partially or in full for any financial loss suffered by the Court or the United Nations as a result of his or her actions, if such actions are determined to be wilful, reckless or grossly negligent.
- (c) The decision to launch an investigation into allegations of misconduct and to impose a disciplinary measure shall be within the discretionary authority of the Registrar.
- (d) Registry staff members may report any alleged breach of the Staff Regulations to the officials and supervisors whose responsibility it is to take appropriate action. All staff members are expected to co-operate with duly authorized audits and investigations. Under no circumstance shall staff members be subject to retaliation for reporting an alleged breach or for co-operating with audits or investigations.

2. Disciplinary measures

- (a) Disciplinary measures may take one or more of the following forms:
  - (i) written censure;
  - (ii) loss of one or more steps in grade;
  - (iii) deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for salary increment;
  - (iv) suspension without pay for a specified period;
  - (v) fine;
  - (vi) deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for consideration for promotion;
  - (vii) demotion with deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for consideration for promotion;
  - (viii) separation from service, with notice or compensation in lieu of notice, and with or without termination indemnity pursuant to paragraph (c) of Annex III to the United Nations Staff Regulations;

- (ix) dismissal without notice or compensation in lieu of notice and without termination indemnity, pursuant to United Nations staff rule 9.7 (e) and paragraph (d) (iii) of Annex III to the United Nations Staff Regulations.
- (b) Measures other than those listed under Section 2 (a) above shall not be considered to be disciplinary measures within the meaning of the present rule. They include, but are not limited to, the following measures:
  - (i) written or oral reprimand;
  - (ii) recovery of monies owed to the Court;
  - (iii) administrative leave with full or partial pay or without pay pursuant to Section 4 below.
- (c) A staff member shall be provided with the opportunity to comment on the facts and circumstances prior to the taking of any disciplinary or non-disciplinary measure under subparagraphs (a) or (b) above.

3. Due process in the disciplinary process

- (a) When the Registrar has decided to launch an investigation under Section 1 (c) above, he may initiate the disciplinary process where the findings of that investigation indicate that misconduct may have occurred. In such cases, no disciplinary measure may be imposed on a staff member following the completion of such an investigation unless he or she has been notified, in writing, of the formal allegations of misconduct against him or her, and has been given the opportunity to respond to those formal allegations. The staff member shall also be informed of the right to seek the assistance of counsel in his or her defence, as set out in Article 11*bis* of the present Staff Regulations.
- (b) Any disciplinary measure imposed on a staff member shall be proportionate to the nature and gravity of his or her misconduct.
- (c) A staff member against whom disciplinary measures pursuant to Section 2 above have been imposed may challenge the decision in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of the Staff Regulations for the Registry.

4. Administrative leave pending investigation and the disciplinary process

- (a) A staff member may be placed on administrative leave, subject to conditions specified by the Registrar, at any time after an allegation of misconduct and pending the initiation of an investigation. Administrative leave may continue throughout an investigation and until the completion of the disciplinary process.
- (b) A staff member placed on administrative leave pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall be given a written statement of the reason(s) for such leave and its probable duration.
- (c) Administrative leave shall be with full pay except when the Registrar decides that exceptional circumstances exist which warrant the placement of a staff member on administrative leave with partial pay or without pay.
- (d) Placement on administrative leave shall be without prejudice to the rights of the staff member and shall not constitute a disciplinary measure. A staff member who has been placed on administrative leave may challenge that decision in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of the Staff

Regulations for the Registry and Part 3 of this Annex. If administrative leave is without pay and either the allegations of misconduct are subsequently not sustained or it is subsequently found that the conduct at issue does not warrant dismissal or separation from service, any pay withheld shall be restored without delay.

Part 2

Prohibition of discrimination, harassment, including sexual harassment, and abuse of authority and legal régime governing violations thereof

1. Definitions

- (a) Discrimination is any unfair treatment or arbitrary distinction based on a person's race, sex, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, disability, age, language, social origin or other status.
- (b) Harassment is any improper and unwelcome conduct that might reasonably be expected or be perceived to cause offence or humiliation to another person. Harassment may take the form of words, gestures or actions. Disagreement on work performance or on other work-related issues is normally not considered harassment and is not dealt with under the provisions of this policy but in the context of performance management.
- (c) Sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favour, verbal or physical conduct or gesture of a sexual nature, or any other behaviour of a sexual nature that might reasonably be expected or be perceived to cause offence or humiliation to another, when such conduct interferes with work, is made a condition of employment or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.
- (d) Abuse of authority is the improper use of a position of influence, power or authority against another person. Abuse of authority may also include conduct that creates a hostile or offensive work environment.
- (e) For the purposes of the present Annex, discrimination, harassment, including sexual harassment, and abuse of authority shall collectively be referred to as "prohibited conduct".

2. General principles

- (a) In accordance with the provisions of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations, and the core values of the United Nations, every staff member has the right to be treated with dignity and respect, and to work in an environment free from discrimination, harassment and abuse. Consequently, any form of discrimination, harassment, including sexual harassment, and abuse of authority is prohibited.
- (b) The Court has the duty to take all appropriate measures towards ensuring a harmonious work environment, and to protect its staff from exposure to any form of prohibited conduct, through preventive measures and the provision of effective remedies when prevention has failed.
- (c) In their interactions with others, all staff members are expected to act with tolerance, sensitivity and respect for differences. Any form of prohibited conduct in the workplace or in connection with work is a violation of these principles and may lead to disciplinary action, whether the prohibited conduct takes place in the workplace, in the course of official travel or an official mission, or in other settings in which it may have an impact on the workplace.

(d) Complaints of prohibited conduct may be made by any staff member, consultant, contractor, university trainee and intern, and any other person who may have been subject to prohibited conduct in a work-related situation.

3. Duties of individuals employed by the Court and specific duties of managers, supervisors and heads of department

(a) All individuals employed by the Court have the obligation to ensure that they do not engage in or condone behaviour which would constitute prohibited conduct with respect to their peers, supervisors, supervisees and other persons performing duties for the United Nations.

(b) Managers and supervisors have the duty to take all appropriate measures to promote a harmonious work environment, free of intimidation, hostility, offence and any form of prohibited conduct. They must act as role models by upholding the highest standards of conduct. Managers and supervisors have the obligation to ensure that complaints of prohibited conduct are promptly addressed in a fair and impartial manner. Failure on the part of managers and supervisors to fulfil their obligations under the present Annex may be considered a breach of duty, which, if established, shall be reflected in their annual performance appraisal, and they will be subject to administrative or disciplinary action, as appropriate.

4. Preventive measures

(a) Prevention of prohibited conduct is an essential component of the action to be taken by the Court. In the discharge of its duty to take all appropriate measures towards ensuring a harmonious work environment and to protect its staff from any form of prohibited conduct, the following preventive measures will be used.

(b) The Registrar shall conduct regular and mandatory awareness programmes for all Registry staff to raise awareness of the Court's zero tolerance of prohibited conduct, to provide guidance on the relevant policy and procedures and to foster the creation of a harmonious working environment, free from intimidation, hostility, offence and any form of discrimination or retaliation.

(c) Heads of departments and divisions shall ensure that their staff and others for whom they are responsible are provided with a copy of this Annex. A note acknowledging receipt shall be placed in the staff member's official status file.

(d) Staff members are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the Court's policy on prohibited conduct and with the various options and internal channels available for addressing such conduct.

(e) In order to resolve problems which could potentially give rise to instances of prohibited conduct, managers and supervisors shall maintain open channels of communication and ensure that staff members who wish to raise their concerns in good faith can do so freely and without fear of adverse consequences.

(f) If there is a need for confidential guidance or advice on matters which could give rise to instances of prohibited conduct, staff members may consult the Ombudsman (Article 10*bis* of the Staff Regulations), who is bound by strict rules of confidentiality. Staff members may also consult any of the other officials listed in Section 5 (A), paragraph (b), below.

5. Corrective measures

(a) Individuals who believe they are victims of prohibited conduct are encouraged to deal with the problem as early as possible after it has occurred. The aggrieved individual may opt for an informal or a formal process, as explained below. Regardless of the choice made, the aggrieved individual is encouraged to keep a written record of events, noting dates, places, a description of what happened and the names of any witnesses and of anyone who may have information concerning the incident or situation at issue.

- (b) All reports and allegations of prohibited conduct shall be handled with sensitivity in order to protect the privacy of the individuals concerned and ensure confidentiality to the maximum extent possible.
- (c) Managers and supervisors have the duty to take prompt and concrete action in response to reports and allegations of prohibited conduct. Failure to take action may be considered a breach of duty and result in administrative action and/or the institution of disciplinary proceedings.
- (d) Persons accused of prohibited conduct may seek assistance from any of the persons listed in Section 5 (A), paragraph (b), below.

A. Informal resolution

- (a) In many cases, the situation can be resolved informally. An informal approach offers the opportunity to resolve a complaint or grievance in a non-threatening and non-contentious manner. Aggrieved individuals are encouraged to notify the offender of their complaint or grievance and ask him or her to stop as, in some instances, the alleged offender may not be aware that his or her behaviour is offensive. However, disparity in power or status or other considerations may make direct confrontation difficult, and aggrieved individuals are not required to confront the offender.
- (b) Aggrieved individuals may ask for assistance from a third party in seeking informal resolution. Depending on the situation and on their level of comfort with one official rather than another, they may seek the assistance of any of the following at the Court:
  - (i) the Ombudsman or a member of the Ombudsman's Office (see Article 10*bis*);
  - (ii) the Medical Officer;
  - (iii) a human resources officer;
  - (iv) a member of the Staff Committee;
  - (v) a legal advisor (see Article 11*bis*);
  - (vi) a supervisor.

Aggrieved individuals may also consult an outside adviser, such as an occupational psychologist or stress counsellor, at their own expense.

- (c) The official from whom assistance has been requested may, with the consent of the aggrieved individual, meet informally with the alleged offender to apprise him or her of the situation and discuss the manner in which it might be resolved to the satisfaction of all concerned.
- (d) All involved in the informal resolution process must recognize the need to treat the situation with sensitivity and confidentiality to the greatest extent possible.
- (e) Regardless of the outcome, the officials listed in paragraph (b) above shall provide continuing support to the aggrieved party at every stage of the process, in consultation with the appropriate officials, taking into account the positive or negative consequences of the proposed course of action. If the temporary assignment of the aggrieved party or the alleged offender to another position is proposed, this may not take place without the consent of the individual concerned.

- (f) An unsuccessful attempt to resolve the matter informally does not preclude it from being pursued formally under the following provisions.

B. Formal procedures

- (a) In circumstances where informal resolution is not desired or appropriate, or has been unsuccessful, the aggrieved individual may submit a written complaint to the Registrar. Complaints concerning the Registrar shall be submitted to the President of the Court<sup>34</sup>. (The person receiving the complaint under this paragraph is hereinafter referred to as the “responsible official”.)
- (b) Formal resolution may also be initiated by the submission of a report of prohibited conduct from a third party who has direct knowledge of the situation to the responsible official.
- (c) In all instances, complaints may be submitted to the responsible official without the need to obtain authorization or clearance from any other official.
- (d) The complaint or report should describe the alleged incident(s) of prohibited conduct in detail and any additional evidence and information relevant to the matter should be submitted. The complaint or report should include:
- (i) the name of the alleged offender;
  - (ii) date(s) and location(s) of incident(s);
  - (iii) description of incident(s);
  - (iv) names of witnesses, if any;
  - (v) names of persons who are aware of incident(s), if any;
  - (vi) any other relevant information, including documentary evidence if available;
  - (vii) date of submission and signature of the aggrieved individual or third party making the report.
- (e) Upon receipt of a formal complaint or report, the responsible official will promptly review the complaint or report to assess whether there are grounds to warrant a formal fact-finding investigation. If that is the case, the responsible official shall promptly appoint a panel of at least two external individuals who have been trained in investigating allegations of prohibited conduct.
- (f) At the beginning of the fact-finding investigation, the panel shall inform the alleged offender of the nature of the allegation(s) against him or her. In order to preserve the integrity of the process, information that may undermine the conduct of the fact-finding investigation or result in intimidation or retaliation shall not be disclosed to the alleged offender at that point. This may include the names of witnesses or particular details of incidents. All persons interviewed in the course of the investigation shall be protected from any form of reprisal. Any potential interference or reprisal should be notified to the responsible official.
- (g) The fact-finding investigation shall include interviews with the aggrieved individual, the alleged offender and any other individuals who may have relevant information about the conduct alleged.

<sup>34</sup> Issues involving judges, the latter not being staff members of the Court and thus not bound by the Staff Regulations for the Registry, will be handled directly by the President or the Vice-President.

- (h) The officials appointed to conduct the fact-finding investigation shall prepare a detailed report, giving a full account of the facts that they have ascertained in the process and attaching documentary evidence, such as written statements by witnesses or any other documents or records relevant to the alleged prohibited conduct. This report shall be submitted to the responsible official normally no later than three months from the date of submission of the formal complaint or report.
- (i) On the basis of the report, the responsible official shall take one of the following courses of action:
  - (i) if the report indicates that no prohibited conduct took place, the responsible official will close the case and so inform the alleged offender and the aggrieved individual, giving a summary of the findings and conclusions of the investigation;
  - (ii) if the report indicates that there was a factual basis for the allegations but that, while not sufficient to justify the institution of disciplinary proceedings, the facts would warrant managerial action, the responsible official shall decide on the type of managerial action to be taken, inform the staff member concerned, and make arrangements for the implementation of any follow-up measures that may be necessary. Managerial action may include mandatory training, reprimand, a change of functions or responsibilities, counselling or other appropriate corrective measures. The responsible official shall inform the aggrieved individual of the outcome of the investigation and of the action taken;
  - (iii) if the report indicates that the allegations were well-founded and that the conduct in question amounts to possible misconduct, disciplinary proceedings shall be instituted under Annex VI, Part 1, of the Staff Regulations.
- (j) Should the report indicate that the allegations of prohibited conduct were unfounded and based on malicious intent, the responsible official shall decide whether disciplinary or other appropriate action should be initiated against the person who made the complaint or report.
- (k) Where an aggrieved individual or alleged offender has grounds to believe that the procedure followed in respect of the allegations of prohibited conduct was improper, he or she may appeal pursuant to Annex VI, Part 3, of the Staff Regulations.

6. Monitoring

Monitoring during the investigation

- (a) Where a fact-finding investigation is initiated following receipt of a formal complaint of prohibited conduct, appropriate measures shall be taken by the responsible official to monitor the status of the aggrieved party, the alleged offender and the work unit(s) concerned until such time as the fact-finding investigation report has been submitted. The purpose of such monitoring shall be to ensure that no party is subjected to retaliation as a result of the complaint or the fact-finding investigation.

Post-investigation review

- (b) Once the investigation has been completed and a decision taken on the outcome, appropriate measures shall be taken by the responsible official to keep the situation under review. These measures may include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - (i) monitoring the status of the aggrieved party, the alleged offender and the work unit(s) concerned at regular intervals in order to ensure that no party is subjected to retaliation as a consequence of the investigation, its findings or the outcome;

- (ii) ensuring that any administrative or disciplinary measures taken as a result of the fact-finding investigation have been duly implemented;
- (iii) identifying other appropriate action, in particular preventative action, to be taken in order to ensure that the objectives of the present Annex are fulfilled.

7. Annual report

All responsible officials shall provide the Registrar annually with statistics on complaints or reports received, and the outcome, with due regard to the privacy of the staff members concerned. The Registrar shall make this information available to Members of the Court and all staff members.

Part 3

Additional provisions governing the formal internal justice mechanism

Staff members of the Registry shall have full access to the United Nations Dispute Tribunal, in accordance with its Statute and Rules of Procedure, which shall be applicable to the Registry of the Court, subject to the conditions to be determined in an exchange of letters between the President of the Court and the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Contributions payable in accordance with article 25 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund shall be based on either:

whichever is higher.

Rule 3.6

Dependency allowances

Definitions

- (a) For the purposes of the Staff Regulations and Rules:
  - (i) A "dependent spouse" is a spouse whose earnings, if any, do not exceed the lowest entry level of the United Nations General Service gross salary scales in force on 1 January of the year concerned for the duty station in the country of the spouse's place of work. In the case of staff in the Professional and higher categories and in the Field Service category, the entry level amount referenced shall not at any duty station be less than the equivalent of the lowest entry level salary at the base of the salary system (G-2, step I, for New York);

- (ii) A “child” is any of the following children for whom the staff member provides main and continuing support:
  - a. A staff member’s natural or legally adopted child; or
  - b. A staff member’s stepchild who is residing with the staff member; or
  - c. A child who cannot be legally adopted, for whom the staff member has legal responsibility and who is residing with the staff member;
- (iii) A “dependent child” is a child for whom the staff member provides main and continuing support and who meets one of the following criteria:
  - a. The child is under the age of 18 years;
  - b. The child is between the ages of 18 and 21 years and attends university or its equivalent full-time; the requirement of residing with the staff member does not apply in this case;
  - c. The child is of any age and has a disability that is permanent or for a period that is expected to be long-term that prevents substantial gainful employment;
- (iv) A staff member claiming a child as a dependant must certify that he or she provides main and continuous support. This certification must be supported by documentary evidence satisfactory to the Secretary-General, if a child:
  - a. Does not reside with the staff member;
  - b. Is married; or
  - c. Is recognized as a dependant under subparagraph (a) (iii) c. above;
- (v) A father, mother, brother or sister of a staff member shall be considered as a secondary dependant if the staff member provides such a person with not less than half of that person’s financial resources, and in any case with not less than twice the amount of the dependency allowance. The conditions regarding age, school attendance and disability are the same for a brother or sister as those applicable to a staff member’s child in subparagraph (iii) above.

Amount of dependency allowance

- (b) The dependency allowances, which are applicable to the different categories of staff, shall be published by the Secretary-General. The dependency allowances shall normally be payable in accordance with the applicable rates, unless otherwise provided by the Secretary-General.

- (ii) Single parent allowance: a staff member in the Professional and higher categories and in the Field Service category recognized as a single parent shall receive a single parent allowance in the amount of 6 per cent of net base salary plus post adjustment in respect of the first dependent child, under conditions established by the Secretary-General. A staff member who receives a single parent allowance in respect of the first dependent child shall not be eligible for payment of a child allowance for that child;
  - (iii) Dependent child allowance: eligible staff members shall receive a dependent child allowance for each recognized dependent child, under conditions established by the Secretary-General. Subject to the provisions of staff regulations 3.5 and 3.6 (a), the full amount of the dependency allowance provided under those regulations and under the Staff Rules in respect of a dependent child shall be payable, except where the staff member or his or her spouse receives a direct governmental grant in respect of the same child. Where such a governmental grant is made, the dependent child allowance or single parent allowance payable under this rule shall be the approximate amount by which the governmental grant is less than the dependent child allowance or single parent allowance set out under the Staff Regulations and Rules. No dependency allowance is payable if the governmental grant is equal to or exceeds the rate set out under the Staff Regulations and Rules;

- (c) Staff members whose eligibility under paragraph (b) above is established at the time of their appointment shall begin to accrue service credit towards home leave from that date. Staff members who become eligible for home leave subsequent to appointment shall begin to accrue such service credits from the effective date of their becoming eligible.
- (d) The country of home leave shall be the country of the staff member's recognized nationality, subject to the following terms, conditions and exceptions:
- (i) The place of home leave of the staff member within his or her home country shall be, for purposes of travel and transportation entitlements, the place with which the staff member had the closest residential ties during the period of his or her most recent residence in the home country. In exceptional circumstances, a change in the place in the country of home leave may be authorized, under conditions established by the Secretary-General;
  - (ii) A staff member who has served with another public international organization immediately preceding his or her appointment shall have the place of home leave determined as though his or her entire previous service with the other international organization had been with the United Nations;
  - (iii) The Secretary-General may authorize:
    - a. A country other than the country of nationality as the home country, for the purposes of this rule, in exceptional and compelling circumstances. A staff member requesting such authorization will be required to satisfy the Secretary-General that the staff member maintained normal residence in such other country for a prolonged period preceding his or her appointment, that the staff member continues to have close family and personal ties in that country and that the staff member's taking home leave there would not be inconsistent with the purposes and intent of staff regulation 5.3;

- b. Home leave travel to a country other than the home country, subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General. In such a case, the travel expenses borne by the United Nations shall not exceed the cost of travel to the home country.
- (e) (i) A staff member's home leave shall fall due upon completion of 24 months of qualifying service;
- (ii) After falling due, home leave may be taken within 12 months, subject to the exigencies of service.
- (f) A staff member may be granted advance home leave, provided that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service have been completed or that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service have elapsed since the date of return from his or her last home leave. The granting of advance home leave shall not advance the eligibility for, or the due date of, the next home leave. The granting of advance home leave shall be subject to the conditions for the entitlement being subsequently met. If these conditions are not met, the staff member will be required to reimburse the costs paid by the Organization for the advance travel.
- (g) If a staff member delays taking his or her home leave beyond the 12-month period after which it falls due, such delayed leave may be taken without altering the time of his or her next and succeeding home leave entitlements, provided that normally not less than 12 months of qualifying service elapse between the date of the staff member's return from the delayed home leave and the date of his or her next home leave departure.
- (h) A staff member may be required to take his or her home leave in conjunction with travel on official business or change of official duty station, due regard being paid to the interests of the staff member and his or her family.
- (i) Subject to the conditions specified in chapter VII of the present Rules, a staff member shall be entitled to claim, in respect of authorized travel on home leave, expenses for himself or herself and eligible family members for the outward and return journeys between the official duty station and the place of home leave. A staff member who chooses to accompany his or her spouse shall be granted travel time appropriate to the travel involved. Dependent children whose parents are staff members, each of whom is entitled to home leave, may accompany either parent. The frequency of travel shall not exceed the established periodicity of the home leave both with regard to staff members and to their dependent children, if any.
- (k) A staff member travelling on home leave shall be required to spend no less than seven calendar days, exclusive of travel time, in his or her home country. The Secretary-General may request a staff member, on his or her return from home leave, to furnish satisfactory evidence that this requirement has been fully met.
- (l) Under terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General, eligible staff members serving at category D and E duty stations that do not fall under the rest and recuperation framework shall be granted home leave once in every 12 months. However, staff members shall not accrue service credits towards sick, annual and home leave, salary increment, seniority, termination indemnity and repatriation grant during periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay exceeding one month. Periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay exceeding one month shall not be counted towards accrued years of service for eligibility requirements for a continuing appointment.

- (v) When boarding is provided, the actual expenses shall be included in the calculation of the admissible expenses, subject to a maximum reimbursement equal to the upper limit of the top bracket of the sliding scale in paragraph (i) above plus the amount of 5,000 United States dollars, equivalent to the lump sum for boarding assistance.

Arrangements relating to military service

- (a) In accordance with section 18 (c) of the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, staff members who are nationals of those Member States which have acceded to that Convention shall be “immune from national service obligations” in the armed services of the country of their nationality.
- (b) Any requests to Governments which have not acceded to the Convention to defer or exempt staff members from military service by reason of their employment with the United Nations shall be made by the Secretary-General and not by the staff member concerned.
- (c) Staff members who have successfully passed a competitive examination and have completed one year of satisfactory service under a fixed-term appointment or who have a continuing appointment may, if called by a Member Government for military service, whether for training or active duty, be placed on special leave without pay for the duration of their required military service. Other staff members, if called for military service, shall be separated from the Secretariat according to the terms of their appointments.
- (d) A staff member called for military service who is placed on special leave without pay shall have the terms of appointment maintained as they were on the last day of service before the staff member went on leave without pay. The staff member’s re-employment in the Secretariat shall be guaranteed, subject only to the normal rules governing necessary reductions in force or abolition of posts.
- (e) In the interpretation of staff rule 9.6 (e) the period of special leave without pay for military service shall be counted for the purpose of establishing seniority.
- (f) A staff member on special leave without pay for military service shall be required to advise the Secretary-General within 90 days after release from military service if the staff member wishes to be restored to active duty with the Secretariat. The staff member shall also be required to submit a certificate of completion of military service.
- (g) If a staff member, after the period of required military service, elects to continue such service or if the staff member fails to obtain a certified release therefrom, the Secretary-General will determine, on the merits of the particular case, whether further special leave without pay will be granted and whether re employment rights shall be maintained.
- (h) If the staff member’s absence on special leave without pay appears likely to last six months or more, the United Nations will pay, if so requested, for transporting the staff member’s spouse and dependent children to the staff member’s place of entitlement and for their return travel after the staff member’s return to active duty with the Secretariat, provided that the expenses involved will be counted as travel expenses related to the next home leave entitlement of the staff member.
- (i) The United Nations shall not continue its contribution to the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund on behalf of the staff member during the staff member’s absence on special leave without pay for military service.
- (j) The provisions of staff rule 6.4 relating to death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations shall not be applicable during periods of military service.

- (k) The Secretary-General may, if the circumstances of the military service appear to warrant it, credit the staff member's period on special leave without pay for military service in fixing the salary step upon the staff member's return to active duty with the Secretariat.
  - (l) The Secretary-General may apply such of the foregoing provisions as are appropriate in the case of a staff member who, with the advance approval of the Secretary-General, volunteers for military service or requests a waiver of immunity under section 18 (c) of the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations.

APPENDIX D

Rules governing compensation in the event of death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations

Section I

Scope and general provisions

Article 1.1

Purpose and scope

The present rules provide for compensation for death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations, as set out below. Compensation shall be provided solely to staff members and their dependants, in accordance with the terms and conditions contained in the present rules.

Article 1.2

Exclusiveness of remedy; non-assignment

Compensation or other forms of recourse provided under the present rules constitute the sole remedy for service-incurred death, injury or illness. The United Nations will not accept, consider or provide compensation or benefits for service-incurred death, injury or illness except under the present rules. Except as set forth below, compensation and rights shall not be assignable to third parties.

Article 1.3

Terminology

The following terminology applies for the purposes of the present rules:

- (a) Claimant: the staff member or dependant, as defined below, bringing a claim under these rules.
- (b) Dependant: the spouse, dependent child, or secondary dependant as set forth in the Staff Rules. Compensation payable on the basis of or benefit payable to a dependent child or secondary dependent sibling ceases on the day the dependent child or secondary dependent sibling reaches the age of 18, or 21 if he or she is attending university or its equivalent full-time. This restriction does not apply where and as long as the dependent child or secondary dependent sibling has a disability that is permanent or for a period that is expected to be long-term that prevents gainful employment.
- (c) Minor: an individual under the age of 18, or the age of majority under the laws of the country of residence of such individual, if the age of majority in the individual's country of residency is less than 18 years of age.
- (d) Illness: a deterioration in health as confirmed by a physician authorized to practise medicine by a competent authority.
- (e) Injury: a physiological impairment as confirmed by a physician authorized to practise medicine by a competent authority.

- (f) Incident: an event causing the death, injury or illness underlying a claim.
- (g) Commute or commuting: travel by reasonable means of transportation and on a direct route, by time or distance, between place of work and residence. A direct route is deemed to commence upon departure from, or be terminated on arrival at, United Nations premises or the property line at the designated place of work or the property line of the staff member's place of residence, such residence including yards, lawns, driveways, garages, stairways, entrances, elevators, basements, hallways or common areas, without deliberate deviation from such route.
- (h) Reasonable means of transportation: a generally accepted means of transportation under the circumstances. Transportation by a particularly hazardous means is not considered a reasonable means of transportation for the purposes of the present rules.
- (i) Service-incurred death, injury or illness: a death, injury or illness where the death, injury or illness is directly attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations under the terms and conditions set out in the present rules.
- (j) Pensionable remuneration: the definition of pensionable remuneration is set out in article 51 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund. If the staff member was not a participant in the Fund at the date of his or her death, injury or illness, remuneration shall be that which, had the staff member been a participant, would have been considered his or her pensionable remuneration at that date.
- (k) Last pensionable remuneration: the pensionable remuneration at the time of (i) the incident, in the case of permanent disfigurement or permanent loss of function; (ii) the separation from service, in the case of total disability; or (iii) the date of death, in the case of death. If the staff member was not a participant in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund at the date of the staff member's death, injury or illness, the remuneration shall be that which, had the staff member been a participant, would have been considered his or her pensionable remuneration at that date.
- (l) United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund benefits: the definition of Fund benefits is set out in article 3.7 below, on the relation to benefits under the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund.
- (m) Lump sum: a one-time payment of compensation.
- (n) Pre-existing medical condition: an illness, injury or impairment that exists prior to the incident resulting in the service-incurred death, injury or illness.
- (o) Total disability: incapacity for further work reasonably compatible with the claimant's abilities, in which such incapacity is due to a service-incurred injury or illness that is likely to be long-term or permanent. The resulting incapacity must have a significant adverse impact on the claimant's actual earnings, as determined by the Secretary-General under the Staff Rules. A determination of total disability under the Staff Rules shall be independent of a finding of disability under the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund.

Article 1.4

Advisory Board on Compensation Claims

- (a) The Secretary-General has established the Advisory Board on Compensation Claims to consider claims for compensation arising from a service-incurred death, injury or illness and to make recommendations thereon to the Secretary-General.

(b) The Board may adopt procedures as it considers necessary for discharging its functions under the present article, provided that, in cases of conflict, the present rules prevail.

(c) Composition of the Board:

(i) Voting members:

- a. Three representatives of the Administration appointed by the Secretary-General;
- b. Three representatives of the staff appointed by the Secretary-General on the recommendation of the staff representative bodies;

(ii) Ex officio members:

In discharging his or her functions and responsibilities under these rules, the Secretary will seek to obtain sufficient and relevant documentary evidence from appropriate sources.

Article 1.6

De minimis* claims

If it is determined that: (a) the potential cumulative cost to the United Nations of a claim is less than an amount determined by the Secretary-General or officials with delegated authority; and (b) the claim is solely for reimbursement of medical expenses, funeral expenses, compensation for permanent disfigurement or loss of function, or granting of sick leave credit, the official with delegated authority to consider such de minimis claims may make determinations on the compensability of a claim, without the consideration of the Advisory Board on Compensation Claims. If the official with delegated authority to consider de minimis claims makes a determination on a claim, and the claim later exceeds the amount for de minimis claims, the claim shall be presented to the Board for new consideration.

Article 1.7

Role of the Medical Services Division

- (a) The Medical Services Division shall make a medical determination for consideration by the Advisory Board on Compensation Claims or the official with delegated authority to consider de minimis claims. Such a determination may include:

  - (ix) Total disability.
- (b) In accordance with staff rule 6.2 (g), a staff member may be required to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner designated by the United Nations Medical Director, with the cost to be borne by the Organization, in order to clarify findings or to further assess the claim in connection with any of the determinations made pursuant to the present article. A staff member may also be required to provide further information in connection with any of the determinations made pursuant to the present article.

Article 1.8

General obligations of claimant

- (a) The claimant must provide the evidence necessary to fully support a claim for compensation in accordance with these rules.
- (b) The claimant must fully and promptly comply with any request by the United Nations in connection with a claim, or the recovery of payments from third parties pursuant to section IV of the present rules.
- (c) In accordance with article 3.8 below, the claimant must inform the Advisory Board on Compensation Claims of any compensation under governmental, institutional, industrial or other workers' compensation schemes or insurance for which the claimant may be eligible in connection with the death, injury or illness underlying a claim.
- (d) The claimant must inform the Secretary of the Board of any changes relevant to a claim, including any changes in medical condition.

- (e) The claimant shall provide, as requested, periodic attestation of continued eligibility to receive periodic compensation under the present rules.

Article 1.9

- (b) When made by staff members, such claims may constitute misconduct under chapter X of the Staff Rules, and may result in disciplinary measures.

Section II

Requirements and conditions for coverage

Article 2.1

Procedural requirement for the filing of a claim

Notice

Such information must be provided in writing by the staff member's physician. The claimant must also submit the results of all relevant medical tests;

Effective dates

- (c) The time limitations for submission of the required forms and supporting documentation will be determined on the basis of the following:
  - (i) Injury or illness: the date of the incident shall be either the event or the period over which an exposure occurred. - (e) The deadline for the filing of a claim, including all necessary supporting documentation, may be waived on an exceptional basis by the Board or the official with delegated authority to consider de minimis claims, in consultation with the Medical Services Division, in cases in which the claimant demonstrates that the delay was the result of incapacity. If a waiver is made, the claim must be submitted within the deadlines set out in article 2.1 (b) above, as applicable, the time frame for which will begin from the date of the cessation of the incapacity.

Article 2.2

Eligibility for coverage

- (a) To be eligible to receive compensation under the present rules, the death, injury or illness underlying a claim must be service-incurred, as assessed in accordance with article 2.2 (d) below.

Home travel

- (c) A staff member who is unable to work for a period of at least six months owing to a service-incurred injury or illness, and for whom the Medical Services Division has so certified, may request consideration for a special travel allowance for travel of the staff member and eligible dependants to the place of entitlement, pursuant to chapter VII of the Staff Rules, and for their return travel when the staff member returns to duty. If such travel is commenced or terminated within 12 months of the staff member's eligibility for home leave entitlement pursuant to staff rule 5.2 and chapter VII of the Staff Rules, such special travel allowance shall be deemed to be in lieu of the staff member's home leave entitlement. If the staff member does not return to duty, such special travel allowance shall be deemed to be in lieu of travel on separation pursuant to chapter VII of the Staff Rules.

Section IV

Recoveries

Article 4.1

Claims against third parties

Notice

- (a) All persons who submit a request for compensation for a service-incurred death, injury or illness under the present rules must notify the Secretary-General in writing at the earliest possible time of any claims, demands or rights that they have pursued, that they are pursuing or that they intend in the future to pursue against any third party or parties in connection with such service-incurred death, injury or illness.

Assignment of rights

- (b) If, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, a claimant has a claim, demand, or right against a third party or parties, including a third party insurance carrier, for damages or other payment(s) in connection with a service-incurred death, injury or illness, the Secretary-General may, as a condition for granting any compensation to the claimant, require the claimant to assign such claim, demand or right to the United Nations so that the United Nations may pursue or enforce the claim, demand or right in the place of the claimant.

Assistance in pursuing or enforcing claims, demands or rights

- (c) Where the United Nations has decided to pursue a claim, demand or right against a third party or parties pursuant to subparagraph (b) above, the claimant shall provide to the United Nations all assistance and cooperation that is necessary for pursuing or enforcing the claim, demand or right, including participating in any suit or proceedings.

Settlement

- (d) The United Nations is entitled to settle any claim, demand or right against a third party or parties pursuant to subparagraph (b) above on such terms and conditions as it determines to be reasonable. A claimant, who has assigned a claim, demand or right under subparagraph (b), shall provide the United Nations all assistance as may be required to reach a settlement, including, but not limited to, participating in any settlement negotiations and executing all settlement-related documents. The claimant shall not, under any circumstances, settle any claim, demand or action with any third party or parties without the express written consent of the United Nations.

Proceeds

- (e) Where compensation or proceeds have been received from a third party or parties as a result of a suit, proceedings or a settlement reached pursuant to subparagraphs (b) to (d) above, such compensation or proceeds shall be applied:
- (i) First, to pay in full the costs of the suit, proceedings or settlement, including reasonable attorney fees;
  - (ii) Second, to reimburse the United Nations for any compensation provided to the claimant pursuant to these rules; and
  - (iii) Third, to pay the remaining amounts to the claimant.

Future claims

- (f) Any amount of compensation that a claimant may be entitled to receive in the future pursuant to the present rules shall be first used to offset any monies received by the claimant under subparagraph (e) (iii) above.

Article 4.2

Recovery of overpayments

- (a) If the United Nations has paid a claimant in excess of any compensation payable under the present rules, the United Nations will notify the claimant of the amount of overpayment and request reimbursement.
- (b) If immediate reimbursement in full is not feasible, any future periodic payments of compensation payable to the claimant under the present rules shall be reduced by 20 per cent until the overpayment has been reimbursed in full. If immediate reimbursement in full of any lump-sum payment made under the present rules is not feasible, the Secretary-General will seek recovery by means including, but not limited to, the reduction of any future lump sum payments of compensation payable to the claimant under the present rules by the entire amount of the overpayment.

Section V

Reconsideration, review and appeal

Article 5.1

Reconsideration of medical determinations

Claimants wishing to contest a decision taken on a claim under the present rules, when that decision is based upon a medical determination by the Medical Services Division or the United Nations Medical Director, shall submit a request for reconsideration of the medical determination under conditions, and by a technical body, established by the Secretary-General.

Article 5.2

Review and appeal of administrative decisions

Claimants wishing to contest a decision taken on a claim under the present rules, to the extent that the decision was based on considerations other than a medical determination, shall submit to the Secretary-General a written request for management evaluation in accordance with staff rule 11.2.

Article 5.3

Reopening of claims

Upon a written request by a claimant, or at the initiative of the Secretary-General, a claim made under the present rules may be reopened when one or more of the following criteria are met:

- (a) The discovery of new material evidence, if such new material evidence may materially affect:
  - (i) A determination as to whether a death, injury or illness was service-incurred; or
  - (ii) A relevant medical determination;
- (b) A worsening or improvement in the condition of the staff member, where such worsening or improvement is directly related to the service-incurred injury or illness, and which may entitle the staff member to additional compensation, or warrant the reduction or elimination of compensation;
- (c) A material mistake was made by the United Nations in the processing of a claim that had an impact on its disposition.

When a claim is reopened subject to the provisions above, any such claim shall be considered in accordance with the present rules. The Secretary-General and the claimant shall be bound by determinations previously made, unless new material evidence or material mistake undermines or otherwise calls into question in substantial part those determinations.

Section VI

Transitional measures

Article 6.1

Transitional measures

- (a) For claims filed for incidents occurring after the entry into force of the present revised rules, such revised rules will be applied.
- (b) For claims filed for incidents that occurred prior to the entry into force of the present revised rules, the previously applicable rules will be applied, except that annual compensation for widows or widowers under the former article 10.2 will continue to be payable provided that the widow or widower has not remarried prior to the entry into force of the present revised rules.
